ABOUT OUR SPEAKER:

With more than 25 years of experience in building and executing initiatives for both sports and media properties, Andrew Saltzman joined the Atlanta Hawks and State Farm Arena as Executive Vice President & Chief Revenue Officer in August 2015.

Andrew's focus is on driving revenue through strategic business development and client service, while overseeing both the Corporate Partnerships and Ticketing groups.

Saltzman has built, trained, and mentored sales, marketing and operational teams throughout his career. He continues to give back to his local community serving on several boards including the Atlanta Sports Council, YMCA of Metro Atlanta, and the Atlanta Convention and Visitors Bureau. A native of New York City and a graduate of Georgetown University, Andrew currently resides in Atlanta with his wife and two sons.
