Owning Your Story-Connecting with Your Vision and Purpose

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: MATT TORNEY

Matt is the Artistic Director of Theatrical Outfit in Downtown Atlanta. Originally from Belfast, he worked as a freelance director in Ireland before moving to the United States in 2006 to do an MFA in directing at Columbia University. He has directed extensively in New York, regionally in the USA, and internationally, and his productions have been nominated for numerous awards.

Prior to joining Theatrical Outfit, he served as the Associate Artistic Director of Studio Theatre, one of the leading contemporary theatre companies in DC. He was also Director of Programming for Origin Theatre, an Off-Broadway company whose mission is to bring the best of European new writing to the USA.

He lives in Oakhurst with his wife, a successful screenwriter and film director, and his two brilliant children, Isla and Fionn.
